INTRODUCTION

Customer satisfaction is one of the topics that needed a lot of consideration. Customer is one of the factors that plays major role in the organizational development. Every organization needs the support of the customers. Whether, its service or product selling organization each one need customer support. In older days products are produced not on the basis of considering the customer but on the basis of selling and profit making motive. But now the satisfaction has been changed. Most of the organization there is one separate department objectives behind this department is making a good relationship between the customer and the organization.

Only with the half of fulfilling the needs of the customer and providing quality service to them we can attain customer satisfaction. In the case of dealership organization also, customer satisfaction is very important factor, because the number of dealership organization is high compared to the production units and every dealer is selling the same products. If there is no specialty in their service the customer are not like to purchase from them.

One of the secrets behinds the success of each and every dealership organization is there strong customer relationship. Mouth publicity is one of the important factors that support every dealership organization growth.

DHATHRI

It all began nearly two centuries ago, when one of the Dhathri group, Parameswaravaidyar, laid the foundations for a long, illustrious tradition for medicines and healing in the small town of Kayamkulam. He was believed to be gifted with a spiritual power for healing why illness. The people accepted him as a godsend curer and turned to him for all kinds of diseases. Over a period of time, this grew into a widely accepted tradition of health care and the knowledge was passed on from one generation to the next. Finally in the early nineties, it materialized as the warrior’s Hospital and Punch karma center at Kayamkulam, and also two production companies in Cochin and Nellad in 2003. Dhathri pvt ltd, Nellad mostly produces Dhathri soap, Dheedi shampoo, Dhathri hair oil, Dhathri face pack. Dhathri group offers a large bouquet of branded products and services aimed at health and wellbeing of the individual. Today as an industry leader, its products and services are enjoyed by millions across the world. The products are prepared under stringent quality control. Authentic ingredients sourced from traditional herbal gardens and untouched mountainsides are only used.

Hair oil plays a vital part in everybody’s hair care routine. Massaging and oiling the hair stimulates blood circulation, which in return results in strong and beautiful hair. INDULEKHA

The firm was established in the year 1988. Cochin Ayurvedic is a world renowned producer, supplier & exporter of Ayurveda based medicines and related medicinal and herbal preparations. We specialize in adapting the traditional science of Ayurveda to formulating and developing medicines to combat the medical challenges of the modern world. At Cochin Ayurvedic, our success is a result of the intensive efforts we make to offer products of better quality. Innovation therefore is integral to our business philosophy. By ensuring a sustained and consistent level of improvement in the quality of products and services offered, we seek to benchmark higher standards OF excellence in the industry. Company introduced Bringha hair oil, white soap, Akrot face pack, Coconut milk shampoo, Satapatri skin care cream, white soap etc.

Indulekha Bringha or simply Indulekha Hair Oil is a complete Ayurvedic solution to all modern day hair problems. In Ayurveda hair care involves two stages: Kesapadasamanam (Hair fall reduction), Kesavardhanam (Stimulate new hair growth). There are specific herbs and natural elements that are prescribed in Ayurveda to prevent hair fall and promote new hair growth. Indulekha Bringha hair oil is constituted by these specific herbs and natural elements, thus bringing to you an Authentic Ayurvedic solution for total hair care. The 100% natural herbs are prepared in a base of pure virgin coconut oil, thus not only providing hair treatment but also nutritionally enriching your hair. Since it is completely based on natural herbs and extracts, Indulekha Bringha hair oil is side-effect free and suitable for everybody.
Thinning of hair, a grievance heard universally, happens because of the loss in proportion between hair loss and hair growth. The only way to survive from hair thinning is to maintain healthy hair loss-growth proportion. So controlling hair loss is not the solution to prevent thin hair, instead new hair generation has to be aided, which Indulekha gold does scientifically well.

PARACHUTE AYURVEDIC

Parachute is a brand name for a range of coconut-based hair products manufactured by Marico. The Company was incorporated on 13th October 1988, under the name of Marico Foods Ltd. It obtained the Certificate of commencement of business on 22nd November. The name of the Company was changed to Marico Industries Limited W.E.F. 31st October 1989. The Company manufactures and markets leading brands in consumer products like Parachute, Saffola, Mediker, Parachute Advanced, Parachute Jasmine, Parachute Aftershower, Parachute Therapie, Hair & Care, Revive, Sweekar, Shanti Badam Amla, Nihar, Starz, Manjal, and Oil of Malabar. Parachute is the flagship brand of Marico. Before the 1991 economic liberalization in India the government classified vegetable oils as an essential commodity and as being in short supply, and thus ineligible for export. This meant that Parachute products could not be exported to foreign markets. In the late 1990s Marico made its first serious entry into foreign markets by setting up a manufacturing plant in Bangladesh. Parachute's market share rose to 70% within ten years and it had become one of the most recognized and trusted brands in that country.

Parachute has the normal oil variety however the Ayurvedic hair oil that is a recent launch has been a super hit. The smell to the results all seem to be great. The company claims that

- The oil nourishes the hair roots, scalp effectively and controls hair fall. So that you can enjoy long thick and beautiful hair.
- The usage of this hair oil also promotes hair growth, prevents pre-mature greying and controls dandruff. So that your hair stays healthy.

The company also mentions that this oil works on hair fall control and hair growth

- This oil effectively controls hair fall and rejuvenates the scalp.
- The natural herbs in the oil balance the aggravating doshas and render good natural growth of your hair.
- It also reduces pre-mature greying, dryness and dandruff problems.
- The oil has been tested by the International Academy of Ayurveda. This oil also received the stamp of approval, guaranteeing hair fall control from this academy.
- Many of the users see results within 4 weeks of usage. The time taken may vary with severity of the hair fall and age of the person.

VAYODHA

In the traditional Ayurvedic texts, there are mentions of herbs that help prevent premature graying. Vayodha hair care oil is constituted with these natural ingredients which have been formulated methodologically, so as to yield its maximum medicinal value. Vayodha introduced Vayodha Ramacham soap, Vayodha Kattar shampoo and Vayodha hair oil. Vayodha Ramacham Soap, a traditionally handmade soap enriched with Ramacham, to purify your skin and give it a natural glow. Vayodha Kattar Shampoo, a daily use natural shampoo that reduces hair fall and removes dandruff without causing dryness.

Using Vayodha will naturally check the possibility of premature graying and will give dark colour and strength to each hair strand. And the natural ingredients in Vayodha will also help prevent hair fall and dandruff.
